

Employment Opportunity

Suez Environnement (Degrémont) is looking for a desalination process engineer having a 7 years minimum experience.

The candidate will be involved in the design of major desalination projects during Tender & Execution phases. He will also participate to the assessment and development of new technologies together with the innovation department.

Location: Rueil-malmaison (France)

Business and/or corporate department: DBO – Technical department

Reporting to: the Desalination discipline manager

Qualifications:

Chemical Engineering

7 years experience minimum in the desalination field

Additional experience in Industry / Reuse / Potable water treatment is valuable

English/French: Fluent oral & written

To apply for this job, please send your resume and motivation letter to:

sophie.bertrand@degremont.com