Desalination for the Environment: Clean Water and Energy

22–26 May 2016

Marriott Park Hotel, Rome, Italy

OBJECTIVES

Water and energy are the issues of this millennium. This conference on desalination for the environment will be devoted to advances towards providing fresh water for all, at affordable cost and at economical energy requirements. With limited and depleting natural sources, desalination can supplement some of the critically lacking amounts of water needed for sustainable development. Its place in the water cycle will be discussed.

The conference will overview the most recent developments in desalination technology, its cost and extent of application, including socio-economic and environmental issues. It will bring together research scientists, decision makers, managers, design engineers and operators from water companies, industries, government departments, consulting firms, research institutes and universities.

The place of industry, research and government decision making in this booming market will be addressed.

Why and how desalination should be integrated into the national or regional water management plans, ensuring socio-economic and environmental benefits, will be the focal point of the conference.

EXHIBITION

The exhibition accompanies the conference and therefore provides an outstanding opportunity for providers of equipment and services in the desalination and wastewater reuse sector to bring their products and services to the attention of a large group of local and international delegates.

Opportunities also exist for additional sponsors for the exhibition and conference, enabling companies to further promote their image in the sector.

ROME 2016

Desalination for the Environment: Clean Water and Energy
Marriott Park Hotel, Rome, Italy, 22–26 May 2016

LOCATION

Rome, the eternal city, has endured for over 2,700 years, and has a history and an appeal like no other city in the world. It is Italy's capital and largest city. In this city a phenomenal concentration of history, legend, and monuments coexists with an equally phenomenal concentration of people busily going about their everyday life. Here the ancient world is integrated with the modern. The Roman Forum and the Pantheon rub shoulders with Baroque palazzos, and Renaissance villas sit alongside the modernism of Mussolini's redesign of the capital, and you can drive along a busy Roman street and see the Coliseum rearing up in front of you. Rome (Roma) means history: Etruscan tombs, Republican meeting rooms, imperial temples, early Christian churches, medieval bell towers, Renaissance palaces, and baroque basilicas. As you stroll through this remarkable city you are walking in the footsteps of the Caesars, St. Peter, Charlemagne, the Popes, and Michelangelo! Rome is the seat of government, learning and arts. It's the most popular tourist attraction in Italy and amid all the history is a modern city buzzing with life. From its restaurants, pizzerias, trattorias, bars, museums, designer stores, street markets, monuments, it's a true kaleidoscope of colors, aromas and excitement.
