
CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

MN Limassol Water Co Ltd is a consortium company providing advanced comprehensive water solutions. It has been awarded by the Water Developed Department of Cyprus, the Contract to Build, Own and Operate for 20 years a 40,000 m³/d, Sea Water UF-RO Limassol Desalination Plant

POSITION: Production Manager

Responsible for the Plant Operation and Maintenance, supervising a multi-skilled team of shift operators and maintenance team. Reporting to the General Manager

Qualification, Experience, Duties & Responsibilities:

- BSc Degree or equivalent in Electrical / Mechanical / Process Engineering or similar
- At least 5 years' experience in similar / process industry, preferably in the water / desalination industry
- Understand the water / desalination treatment processes in adequate level
- Responsible for plant performance, meeting all its contractual obligations (Water Quantity, Quality and Energy criteria)
- Manage shift operators / maintenance teams engineers and technicians of varying disciplines
- Responsible for preparations for the smooth and efficient plant performance
- Be able to work under pressure and deliver targeted performances
- Be prepared to carry out hands on work where needed and lead by example maintenance team.
- Experienced in water treatment processes is considered necessary
- Responsible for the Health and Safety of the Plant
- Manage Warehouse, workshop and timely order and delivery of spare parts.
- Make sure that reactive and proactive maintenance plans are in place and implemented
- Manage all the plant operation data monitoring records and data acquisition system
- Prepare and work within approved annual budgets
- Prepare monthly reports to the General Manager
- Supervise the administration activities

The right candidate must also have the ability to communicate well at all levels and manage people well. In addition, the candidate must possess good planning, presentation and organizational skills, the skills to identify quality deficiencies and implement improvement, solve problems at site and achieve results through motivation and team working.

Location: Limassol, Cyprus

Remuneration / package: according to qualifications and experience.

Communication language: English